Report of Town Agent

FOR THE YEAR ENDING JANUARY 31, 1936

Summary of Receipts

Received from redemption of town liens,	$2,531.05
Received from sale of town property	2,598.27
Received from rental of town property	220.00
Total receipts	$5,349.32
Paid to Selectmen,	$5,349.32

Sales and redemption of title to real estate were as follows:

John A. Delaney, acct. purchase Brickelmaier house	$1,500.00
H. S. Baketel, purchase of Stone house	500.00
Kenneth Blanchard, towards redemption of Maud Marshall house	170.00
Wm. A. Waterman, balance redemption of Hazel A. Waterman property	56.74
Mrs. Margaret Packard, redemption of Dennis Lary heirs house	121.98
A. Leslie Gordon, balance redemption of Julia Irving house	31.40
A. C. Lary, redemption of Joseph Lary heirs land	168.15
	$2,598.27

Within the immediate future the list of town-owned property will comprise only the grist-mill, which is being rented for an amount equal to the taxes to the Canaan Wood Products Co., and the Canaan Forge building, which is serving a useful purpose as a storehouse for the town's highway equipment. All other parcels of any value will have been redeemed by the rightful owners. The sale of the Brickelmaier house places that property once again on the taxpaying list and the purchase of the Stone house by Mr. Baketel, son of Dr. Baketel, was an exceedingly fortunate transaction as it will lead to an extensive development of a neglected estate. Both these properties have fallen into young and strong hands. Canaan's position in regard to tax-title property at present is almost unique. It is earnestly hoped that it may continue to be so.

Respectfully submitted,
EDWARD A. BARNEY, Town Agent.
